PRICE OF THIS CATALOGUE. $1.00.

TO COIN COLLECTORS,

With a Catalogue in hand, it may seem unnecessary, but the proprietor hopes it will not be deemed impertinent to call special attention to a few particulars.

Mr. Colburn's American Collection has been known to all American collectors for many years past as ranking amongst the first in the country; but that his attention was equally given to Ancient and English coins, was not so generally known. Commencing when few were engaged in the pursuit, and uniting with the enthusiasm of the collector profound knowledge as a Numismatist, in the course of years he succeeded in bringing together a collection, in regard to which it would be but faint praise to say, it is equalled by but few in the United States. The present Catalogue embraces every piece in the collection referred to.

In the American department, the owner deploras the absence of some rare pieces in the regular series, but trusts that collectors who may favor his sale with their presence or their orders, will find themselves more than compensated for the lack of the desired coins, by the presence of many remarkable things, which of course it is quite needless to designate.

In description, the standard adopted for the sales of Nov. 11-14, 1862, and April 28 to May 1, 1863, has been adhered to; and it is hoped that in every case the description will be found to conform to the exact state of the piece. For convenience of comparison with European catalogues, in describing Ancient coins the scale of Mionet is referred to; in all other cases the American scale is adhered to.

About the last of November a Priced Catalogue will be published, at one dollar per copy. Ten copies only will be printed on large paper.

A PRICED CATALOGUE of the Sale of MR. SEAVEY'S COLLECTION will be ready one week after the sale, and may be had on application to

- 26.00 80. Jewish Shekel; an undoubted original; it bears in the ancient Samaritan characters the legend, Jerusalem the Holy, surrounding a stalk with three buds (Aaron's rod); rev. in the same characters, Shekel of Israel, around a cup (the pot of incense). This specimen was brought from the East many years ago, and is stated by Mr. Colburn to be the only genuine shekel that he has ever known in America. Of the most extraordinary degree of rarity, and in very fine condition; size 5.
- [The Jewish Shekel, and its divisions, bear their name and denominations in Samaritan characters; all those with Hebrew letters are modern forgeries. The character of printed Samaritan materially differ in figure from those on the coins, which are very irregularly formed. — J. Y. AKERMAN, Numismatic Manual, London, 1840, p. 16.]
- 10.00 81. Silver dirhem of the famous Caliph Haroun Alraschid. On one side (in Arabic script), in the centre, "There is no God but one God, to whom there is no Fellow." Around this, "In the name of God, this dirhem was coined in the City of Peace (Bagdad), in the year 188," A. D. 803. On the reverse, in the centre, "Mahomed is the messenger of God." Around this, "Mahomed is the messenger of God, whom he sent as the director of the true religion, that he might raise it above all religions, however much the Associators (i. e. Trinitarians) should be displeased thereby." This piece is in fine condition, and rare. Size 6.
- 2.00 82. Modern Jewish Shekel, in Silver; obv. Pot of Incense; rev. Aaron's Rod (?); inscriptions in Hebrew; size 10½.

COLONIALS.—Continued

- $0.15 2615. Conn. Cent, 1787, projection resembling a horn from the bust.
- 50 2616. Conn. Cent, 1787, "Et Lib. Inde.," very rare variety.
- 15 2617. Conn. Cent, 1787, head of Gov. Bradford, scarce.
- 3.00 2618. Conn. Cent, 1788, entirely uncirculated, very rare.
- 50 2619. Conn. Cent, 1788, a beautiful fillet, extending from the eye to the back of the head, several stars on the drapery of the Goddess, struck over a "Nova Constellatio," unique and fine.
- 10 2620. Conn. Cent, 1788, wavy hair, ornamental fillet.
- 10 2621. " " similar to the last.
- 25 2622. " " "Auctori Connect," poor, but very rare.
- 24.00 2623. Auctori Plebis, 1787, a slight flaw in the planchet shows on the reverse, but altogether the best specimen yet offered for sale; entirely uncirculated, with all the fine lines, particularly of the rev., sharp and distinct.
- 17.00 2624. Auctori Plebis, 1787, another splendid specimen, as desirable as the last.
- 110.00 2625. George Clinton Copper, 1787, obv. bust of Geo. Clinton; rev. arms of the State of New York with motto and date. But five of these pieces are known; one was sold with the Finotti collection for $115; its present ownership is not generally known; three others are in celebrated collections, and so highly valued that, in one instance at least, the owner said he should decline to part with his specimen for $1,000. This one, formerly belonging to Mr. Haines, was recently purchased by the present owner for an extravagantly large price, and being the only one that can by any possibility be brought into the market, he hopes to see a very lively contest for its possession.
- 20.00 2626. New York Cent, 1787, obv. arms of the State; rev. spread eagle with head encompassed by stars and the whole surrounded by the motto "E Pluribus Unum," with date. Sold in my sale May 1st, to Mr. Abbey, and re-purchased from him. Very fine and rare.

- $100.00 2691. "To Peace and Commerce," "IV. Jul. MDCC-LXXVI.," an Indian, personifying the genius of America, seated, surrounded by the emblems of commerce; Mercury, having presented him with a cornucopia, stands by his side; rev. "The United States of America," a large spread eagle with broad square shield, holding in his dexter claw an olive branch, and in the other a bundle of thirteen arrows. It will be noticed that the proper position of the olive branch and arrows is reversed—in the upper field of the medal a constellation of thirteen stars, forming the body of a sun, the rays from which pierce through a mass of clouds, encircling the head of the eagle; a scroll inscribed E Pluribus Unum, is held in the eagle's beak. This medal, of elaborate design and most artistic execution, is evidently coeval with the time which it commemorates. Believing it to be unique, and that it surpasses in interest and value any other American medal, the owner recently purchased it at the large price of $100—it is in very fine condition, 44.
- 20.00 2692. "Benjamin West, President of the Royal Society, 1815," fine bust; rev. "Respectfully to perpetuate the names of those who in 1811 subscribed to purchase the picture of Christ in the Temple, for the gallery of the British Institution." The rev. bears the names of the forty subscribers referred to. This fine medal was executed at the expense of Mr. West, and a copy presented to each one of the gentlemen whose names it bears. This one is inscribed on the edge, Presented by Mr. West to Richard Payne Knight, Esq. This medal having been received by the former owner from the hand of the great American painter, is endowed with peculiar interest, proof, 27.
